On 23 September 1942 at 7.00 p.m., Gestapo men entered my mother's flat and arrested her. My mother, Stanisława Winczewska, was living at that time at Słowackiego Street 14. My brother, Jan Bogusław Winczewski, born in 1916, I don't know the exact date, his wife Ada Winczewska, née Mayer, born in 1919, my second brother Józef Winczewski, born on 19 March 1928 (he was only 14 years old), and a maid, Maria Grzywacz, were all also arrested.

At the same time, in the house at Koziennicka Street 28, the Germans arrested my third brother Henryk Winczewski, born, as far as I can remember, in 1909, and his wife's cousin Tadeusz Kozerski.

I don't know why all the people mentioned above were arrested.

On 12 October 1942, my brothers, Jan Bogusław Winczewski, an officer by profession, and Henryk Winczewski, a revenue officer, were executed by the Germans on the gallows in Rożki near Radom.

On 15 October 1942, my mother, Stanisława Winczewska, and my sister-in-law, Ada Winczewska, née Mayer, were executed on the gallows by the Warsaw road in Radom. At the time of the execution the latter was three or four months pregnant.

My brother Józef had been for some time kept in the Radom prison. It isn't known what happened to him later. He vanished without trace.

Marianna Grzywacz was deported to Auschwitz, from where she returned this year. I don't know her current address. She doesn't live in Radom.

Tadeusz Kozerski was executed on the gallows near the Arms Factory on 14 October 1942.

Having been shown photographs of the people executed by the Warsaw road in Rożki and near the Arms Factory in Radom, the witness testified as follows:

I recognize my mother among those whom the Germans executed by the Warsaw road. She is hanging first from the left. The woman hanging second from the left resembles in figure my sister-in-law. Because I can't see her face, I am not sure if it is really her.

In the photograph of the people executed in Rożki, marked as "Rożki II", I recognize my brother, Jan Bogusław Winczewski. He is fifth from the left. My brother's acquaintances, who saw him at the time of the execution, told me that he had no jacket on. He was wearing only a vest.

The man in the photograph marked as "Róźki II", the one fourth from the left, looks, judging by his clothes and his build, like my brother, Henryk Winczewski. But I am not sure of it.

People said that the bodies of those executed by the Germans were burnt in Firlej.

I didn't receive any formal notification of the death of the members of my family.

The report was read out.
