I know that during the German occupation, in August 1944, the Hasag factory guards arrested my husband (Stanisław), Roman Tomaszewski and one Jew whose surname I do not know, on the premises of the Granat factory in Kielce.

My husband and the above-mentioned people were arrested on 6 August 1944 during lunchtime, and they were executed by shooting on the night of 10 August 1944.

The shooting of my husband and the above-mentioned people was perpetrated by a Volksdeutsch named Knop (I do not recall his name) and by Stanisław Marcinkowski on the premises of the Hasag factory.

The bodies of the executed, both that of my husband and Tomaszewski, were buried on the premises of the Hasag factory.

The report was read out.
