

EUGENIUSZ JAROSZKIEWICZ

Eugeniusz Jaroszkiewicz

Class 4

1946

My wartime experiences

During the war, I sat in a trench. Then, when the Germans ran away, a Soviet patrol explored the surrounding area, and the Soviet troops followed the patrol. When we came out of the trenches, the Soviets started asking us if there were any Germans around, and we told them that they had run away under cover of night.